CIVIL WAR NEWS FOUND IN DETROIT NEWSPAPERS

Marcia McCrary, Ypsilanti, Michigan

At the February meeting of GSWC, David Curtis' excellent speech on the Civil War prompted me to see what I could find about my great-grandmother's brothers who fought for the Union. One of them, Henry Augustus Bennett, joined the Fourteenth Infantry of Michigan, which made its rendezvous in Ypsilanti. They left here 18 April 1862. It remains a puzzle as to where Camp Mizner was located in Ypsilanti.

There is, of course, a wealth of material on the Civil War. One of the more interesting items is a book written by Helen H. Ellis titled Michigan In the Civil War - A Guide to the Material in Detroit Newspapers 1861-1866 which was published by the Michigan Civil War Centennial Observance Commission in 1965. Most entries have brief comments describing the contents of the newspaper article. For instance, the entry F.177 contains, in part, this note: The Irish-American Regiment (14th Inf.) to rendezvous at Ypsilanti, includes Emmott Guards, Wolf Tone Guards, Geraldine Guards, Shield Guards, Emerald Rangers.

All military units are indexed, including those mentioned from other states; not all names are indexed. A second index lists war correspondents.

The LDS/GSWC Library owns a copy (as does the Library of Michigan) from which the following citations of the 14th Infantry were culled. Microfilm of the newspapers may be found in the Harlan Hatcher Graduate Library at the University of Michigan, and the Library of Michigan, Lansing.

There were quite a few Washtenaw county residents who were also part of this regiment (the letter in parenthesis indicates the Company of the 14th Infantry to which the man belonged): John D. Bruen (F); William H. Buskirk (F); Hank Carpenter (died Aug 7, 1864 ); Patrick Collins (B); William S. Corselius (H); Richard Dubois (I); Billy Elwell (died Aug 7, 1864); John Hogan (H) (died 5 Apr 1864 Ann Arbor); Patrick Irwin; James McConnell (H); Sylvester C. Noble; Michael Walsh (C) and Frederick Wetmire (H).

The History of Washtenaw County, Michigan published by Charles C. Chapman & Co., 1881, lists, on page 387, more Washtenaw County residents who were members of this unit. My Great-great uncle's unit was Company F, of which John D. Bruen, William H. Buskirk and Sylvester C. (called Vett) Noble were also members. Dr. Donald A. Disbrow, professor emeritus from EMU, and a member of the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, wrote a marvelous article about Vett Noble and his Civil War Letters. It was published in the March 1968 issue of Civil War History. The letters themselves belong to the Ypsilanti Historical Society.

Other counties which had residents that belonged to the Fourteenth Infantry were: Allegan, Barry, Clinton, Eaton, Ingham, Kent, Shiawassee and Wayne.

Just reading the listing will give you some idea of the involvement of the 14th Infantry in the war. Our hope is that you could use this list to locate information about your relative. If he fought in another regiment, look for the Ellis book, and use the index. The call number at the LDS library is: 977.403 Ell. Happy hunting!

[Note: Code means the indicator for which newspaper, and the entry number in the Ellis book. Date is the date of the newspaper. Page includes the page number, followed by a colon, and the column number(s). The code for the newspapers is at the end of the list.]

THE PARLEY PHILLIPS FAMILY BIBLE RECORD

This Bible record has been kindly donated to the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, Michigan, by Millard F. Phillips of Milan, Michigan. The family Bible belonged to his great-great-grandfather, Parley Phillips. The family lived on a 170 acre farm two miles west of Mooreville in Washtenaw County. They emigrated to Michigan in 1836 from New York State.

The book is titled The Cottage Bible, Old and New Testaments, and was printed and published by Case, Lockwood & Company, Hartford, in 1866. Embossed on the cover: Parley & Mary Phillips.
